Why Scouts Sell Cookies - - - -

Why Do We Sell Cookies?

The Girl Scouts sell cookies so that they will have money to maintain, build, and subsidize their camping program. The cookie money has been used in the past for such things as buying land, tents, dishes, beds, mattresses, etc. It has been used to dig wells, build tent platforms, erect buildings of all kinds, to make roads into camps, to pay labor costs, and to pay for the on-going maintenances of the camps.

2. What Cookies Are Sold?

The five different kinds of cookies from the Southern Biscuit Company, Richmond, Va.

The cookies sell for 60 a box. The troop makes 6c per box, the Council will make approximately 10c per box.

Approximately 210,400 boxes were sold in 1965.

3. When?

The girls will take orders from the cookies and collect the money by the week of March 12-20. They will receive their troops' money will be delivered to the office by May 30.

A Friendly NOTE

By: Paul Thompson

Although we may jocularly hang the title "Eighth Wonder of the World" on any number of insignificant acts or articles, we sometimes lose sight of the fact that seven actual wonders have existed. It's a good bet that you can't stop right here and name four of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Here they are:

The Colosus of Rhodes; The Pharos of Alexandria; The Statue of Zeus; The Mausoleum at Halicarnassus; The Temple of Diana; The Hanging Gardens of Babylon and The Pyramid of Cheops.

Everyone wonders . . . how good can anything be? . . . here at PARKWAY RESTAURANT, Rt. 24, Appomattox.
